The Michigan Tech Archives is updating its list of local historical researchers for hire and seeks additional individuals interested in providing a fee-based research service to patrons unable to travel to the Copper Country to undertake their own research projects. Although our primary interest is in supporting use of our collections, researchers on this list may also be contacted for projects involving research at local records offices, cemeteries, and other archives.

The Archives takes no involvement in setting fee schedules for this sort of research and will not include fees as part of its listing. It is up to each individual to establish their own operating procedures, manage contact with patrons, and bear responsibility for the outcome of their work. The Archives' only role is to maintain a listing for the convenience of our patrons. The Archives bears no responsibility for the quality of this work and reserves the right to remove listings at any time.

To be included on the updated list, please complete and return this form to the Archives. This list will be posted on our website, and will be publicly distributed. By signing and returning this form, you are giving your permission to distribute your contact information.

Thanks for your willingness to assist outside researchers that are unable to visit the Archives in person. You add value to our holdings through your service. Contact Archives' staff for any additional information about this program.

Please feel free to copy and share this letter with any individuals interested in this sort of work.
