The Humanities Department
Modern Language Program presents

Alternate Realities
Film Series

“Africa Paradis" turns our worldview on its head by imagining Africa of the future as a world economic power, prosperous and united, while Europe has suffered a devastating political and economic crisis. When an unemployed French couple illegally enter the “United States of Africa” to find work they encounter the politics of racism and tolerance.

Thursday, February 12th
7:00 p.m., 134 Walker

“Riveting and emotionally involving from start to finish. Intensely cinematic. Gedeck’s performance is phenomenal.”
- Jonathan Romney, Screen International

Thursday, March 19th
7:00 p.m., 134 Walker

In a tour-de-force performance, Martina Gedeck stars as an unnamed character who suddenly finds herself cut off from all human contact when an invisible, unyielding wall inexplicably surrounds the countryside where she is vacationing.

Thursday, April 9th
7:00 p.m., 134 Walker

“An astonishing, powerful story... makes for first-rate drama.”
- Jeffrey Lyons, Lyons Den Radio

Patagonia, Argentina—1960. Eva, Enzo and their three children welcome a German doctor into their home and entrust their young daughter, Lilith, to his care, not knowing that they are harboring one of the most dangerous criminals in the world.

For more information about the film series or language study at Michigan Tech, please visit:
http://www.mtu.edu/humanities/undergraduate/modern-languages/

Michigan Technological University is an equal opportunity educational institution/equal opportunity employer, which includes providing equal opportunity for protected veterans and individuals with disabilities.