

PAVLIS HONORS COLLEGE PRESENTS:

Unlocking Success: Essential Employable Skills for Today's Competitive Job Market

Gain insights into essential employable skills from industry leader Bob Doyle to boost your career potential.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 16
5:00 PM
PAVLIS COLLABORATION SPACE
M&M 722

Join the Pavlis Honors College for an engaging conversation with Bob Doyle, President and CEO of the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants (MICPA), as he shares insights from his extensive career. Mr. Doyle will discuss the key employable skills he values in employees and peers, offering practical advice for thriving in today's job market.

With a diverse educational background—including a B.S. in Environmental Engineering, an M.S. in Engineering Management, and an M.A. in Public Relations & Organizational Communication—Mr. Doyle brings a unique perspective on the intersection of human and technological challenges. His career, which includes a previous role as Vice President of Marketing, Communications, and Advocacy at the Association for Advancing Automation (A3), highlights his ability to navigate complex industries and drive success.

Don't miss this opportunity to learn from a leader who has successfully leveraged his skills across various sectors - everyone is welcome!

Questions? Email honors@mtu.edu

Michigan Technological University

Michigan Tech is an Equal Opportunity Educational Institution/Equal Opportunity Employer that provides equal opportunity for all, including protected veterans and individuals with disabilities.

www.mtu.edu/honors

Pavlis
Honors College