

Bleck Engineering Company, Inc. is a well-established, multi-discipline, small sized civil engineering and surveying firm that was founded in 1946. Bleck Engineering provides consulting services to clients in the public, private, and industrial sectors in Northern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin, and is seeking an intern to be a part of our Field Crew for our Lake Forest, Illinois office. As part of the Field Crew, you will provide technical support in the field on projects.

Field Crew Internship Description and Requirements:

- Assist the Field Crew Chief with a variety of survey projects including topographic surveys, ALTA/NSPS Land Title Surveys, boundary surveys, and construction staking
- Assist in stocking the company vehicle each morning with supplies and equipment
- Capable of working in rough conditions and on steep slopes
- Capable of working in the field in all weather conditions
- Available to work overtime as needed to complete projects
- Follow QA/QC procedures and documentation of all field notes and electronic data
- Organize and maintain all project information and electronic files
- Develop excellent client relations
- Driving/operating a motor vehicle with a valid driver's license in the state of residence
- Excellent interpersonal, organizational, leadership, written communication, and verbal communication skills

Education/Experience

A High School diploma is required. We are looking for a strong candidate who is has a desire to learn and improve field skills and survey knowledge.

If you are interested in being considered for a position at Bleck Engineering Company, Inc. please email a résumé and cover letter to employment@bleckeng.com

Please visit our website at www.bleckeng.com for additional company information.