

American Society of Civil Engineers November Meeting

Where: Dillman 320

When: Monday November 4th,
7:00 PM

Who: Stu Kogge, GEI
Consultants

About the Presenter:

Stu Kogge is a legendary figure in the environmental coordination sector for Michigan and beyond. Stu has experience in nearly every aspect of wetland management including wetland identification and delineation, aquatic biome health, mussel surveys, and government regulation requirements. For more information on Stu, please see his bio found here:

<https://www.geiconsultants.com/?team=stuart-kogge>

Topics:

- Environmental coordination requirements for a variety of construction types
- Wetland identification and delineation
- Mussel survey requirements
- Aquatic biome health management and restoration
- Insight into potential careers in environmental engineering.
- Networking opportunities with influential members of the environmental coordination community
- Possible internships