GRADUATE RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM (GFRP)

September 16, 2022 • 3 pm
Rekhi Hall, Room 214

The National Science Foundation GRFP recognizes and supports outstanding graduate students who have demonstrated the potential to be high-achieving scientists and engineers early in their careers.

To be eligible for the NSF GRFP, you must:

- Be a US citizen, US national, or permanent resident
- Intend to pursue a research-based master's or Ph.D. program in a GRFP-supported field
- Be enrolled in an eligible program at an accredited United States graduate institution, with a US campus, by fall following selection
- Be at an early stage in your graduate career or an undergraduate senior
- Have completed no more than one academic year of full-time graduate study (or the equivalent), or you are an undergraduate senior
- Graduate students are limited to only one application to the GRFP
