

Mathematical Sciences Colloquium

Michigan Technological University

Fisher Hall 127

October 17, 2014

1:05 p.m.

Principal Component Analysis: Old and New

Dr. Matthew Masarik

Michigan Tech Research Institute (MTRI)

Abstract: In this talk we explore several generalizations and extensions to the well-known method of Principal Component Analysis. We discuss a number of ongoing applications using these generalizations at the Michigan Tech Research Institute, with a particular emphasis on problems from the field of inverse problems.